About This Game

Parcel is a multi-character cyberpunk puzzle game where your goal is to solve interlocking laser puzzles by using the unique abilities of different characters. The game can be played alone or cooperatively with friends. The game features over 120 unique puzzles and a level editor which enables the amount of playable content to grow to unpredictable numbers. A puzzling future awaits!

Providing an intellectual challenge like no other, Parcel will make players think and leave them thinking afterwards. The game follows a 22nd century postage company, touching on subjects such as post-humanism (pun very much intended) and virtual reality, with the full intent of boggling your minds with questions about the future that we, as humans and as gamers, are heading into.

Features:

- Over 120 levels of a puzzling adventure divided into numerous distinct sectors
- Single-player and local co-op - play the entire adventure alone or with up to 4 friends!
- Several unique characters with their own interesting personalities and special powers to help you solve even the hardest challenges - or to complicate things further
- A thought-provoking story about a not-so-unlikely future and its peculiar inhabitants - and a box

- Gorgeous environments with moody, colorful visuals
  - An extensive level editor with endless creation possibilities – make your own puzzles and challenge the world!

We firmly believe that harnessing the creative spirit of the community is essential for Parcel, as there are literally millions of different mind-boggling puzzles that can be created with the character and level object combinations. We will continue to listen to community feedback and create the best possible way for players get puzzled and to puzzle each other!

Pros:

- Sokoban derivative.
- Aesthetics was actually pleasing for a puzzle game.
- Challenging.

Cons:

- Undo would have been useful.
- Music was uninspired, ended up turning it off.
- One of the achievement (We Don't Need Another Hero) basically forces you to replay the whole game if you mess it up the first time, like I did. Went much faster the second time, but still a pita.
